

NPH USA

Raising Children. Supporting Families. Transforming Lives.

OUR HOMES: NPH DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

THE POWER TO EMPOWER.

COUNTRY FACTS

Area: 18,815 square miles – slightly more than twice the size of New Hampshire

Population: 10,499,707 (July 2020 est.)

Languages: Spanish, English widely spoken

Issues: Water shortages, soil erosion, deforestation; subject to severe storms from June to October

DISCOVER NPH DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

Our family in the Dominican Republic began with seven children in a rented home in the town of San Pedro de Macoris and quickly expanded to six rented houses. The bishop of San Pedro de Macoris, Francisco Ozoria Acosta, donated land to NPH on behalf of his diocese. Two adjacent parcels were then purchased and construction began on the NPH home. In September 2005, the family moved into their new home, naming it Casa Santa Ana.

NPH DOMINICAN REPUBLIC FACTS

Opened: January 6, 2003

Location: Outside of San Pedro de Macorís, about 40 miles east of Santo Domingo, the nation’s capital and largest city

Features: 50 acres of land; school (grades K - 11); vocational workshops; clinic; farm and greenhouse; fully independent water system, including a tower and wells; chapel; playgrounds, basketball court; baseball and soccer fields

181
children fully supported

660***
services provided

*Total services provided includes fully supported community children and youth, and youths and adults who receive support such as scholarships, in-kind donations and medical/social services.