

NPH USA
Raising Children. Supporting Families.
Transforming Lives.

PLANNED GIVING: MAKE A LASTING IMPACT

For over 55 years, NPH USA (Nuestros Pequeños Hermanos, Spanish for “Our Little Brothers and Sisters”) has worked to end the vicious cycle of poverty in Latin America and the Caribbean by supporting the homes, health services and educational programs which have served tens of thousands of children and families. Together, we enable vulnerable children to become caring and productive members of their communities.

Many of our partners have chosen to include NPH USA in their estate plan so they can continue to help build a better future for children even after they are gone.

POPULAR WAYS TO GIVE

- Wills and living trusts

ADVANTAGES TO PLANNED GIVING

Gift and estate planning can offer many advantages to help you meet your overall financial goals and help NPH USA in its long-term financial planning.

- Protect your estate from undue tax and administrative burdens, and ensure maximum estate liquidity.
- Have an established plan for the management and disposal of assets upon death.

We strongly recommend that you always work with a qualified estate planning attorney or other financial advisor when developing your estate plan. Our staff is happy to work in conjunction with your advisors to help you leave a legacy for the children.

WHAT OUR SUPPORTERS SAY

“ Having been supporters for two decades, we are firm believers in both the huge need for NPH and its wonderful record in changing the lives of thousands of children. That’s why we decided to include NPH USA in our wills – so our help will continue to support their tremendous work. ”

~ Ray & Mary Waldmann, Bellevue, WA

“ We have been supporters of NPH USA since 2006. We have visited the home in El Salvador four times and currently sponsor four children there. We have watched them grow into happy, healthy normal teens with a very large loving family. We see the university students with the drive to succeed and the joy of having the opportunity to make their lives better than they could have hoped for as a youngster in poverty. We are blessed and wish to share our blessings with NPH USA and the children by including such a fine organization in our wills. ”

~ Stu & Jan McFadden, Loudon, TN

“ In 1984 while at NPH Mexico, I saw a photo of a brother and sister when they had arrived at the home. They had been abandoned and were skinny, dirty, and scared, clinging to each other. Then Father Wasson introduced me to them, standing tall and confident, attending school, planning “when I grow up.” Remarkable! Their total lives had changed. I went home to Minnesota and pledged a gift in my will to continue the work Father Wasson began, and to build on the future of our NPH family. ”

~ Rose Schaffhausen, Saint Paul, MN

“ We feel very good about our decision to include NPH USA as one of our principle beneficiaries. We have personally witnessed hundreds of ‘real stories’ of how the lives of high-risk children have been transformed — becoming good citizens and change-agents in their own countries. The grounding, NPH values of providing quality EDUCATION, unconditional LOVE and instilling a strong sense of personal RESPONSIBILITY really works! ”

~ Pat & Julie Callahan, Seattle, WA
