Did You Know?

- Peru is the first country in South America to have an NPH home.
- Rafael Arce, NPH Peru's National Director, is an Hermano Mayor ("Older Brother"), who was raised at NPH Honduras. ▶
- Each of the family-style homes is designed to accommodate 16 children and two caregivers.
- The NPH OneFamily program was launched in 2018 with home visits, family awareness sessions, and a parental training program.
- The school year begins in mid-March. The children currently attend local schools. Many had never been to school prior to joining NPH.
- The home's vocational workshop was constructed in 2016. It provides the opportunity for youth to learn a valuable trade, as well as provide bread for the home.
- The Higher Education Program offers youth and young adults vocational training, university instruction, and resources for transitioning to an independent and prosperous adulthood.
- In 2021, NPH made it possible for six students to study careers at technical institutes, eight to pursue university degrees, and one student to complete a degree. ▶
- To further improve the health and wellbeing of children and staff, fruits and legumes were added to the daily menu and a magnetic water softener system was installed in 2021.
