Did You Know?

- The school year in Guatemala is January – October. The curriculum includes Spanish, social studies, natural sciences, English, arts and crafts, music and sports.
- There are five nationally certified vocational workshops: Baking, Cooking, Carpentry, Metalwork, and Sewing.
- The Sagrada Familia Daycare Center opened on the NPH property in 2019. It provides care and early stimulation for 2-to-4-year-old children of single parents with limited resources.
- The Father William Wasson Family Center opened in 2022. Located 5 miles from the NPH home in Chimaltenango, it focuses on supporting and strengthening families by filling vital gaps in services to help children, people with disabilities, and single mothers. The Center offers free nutrition, daycare, and tutoring for children; speech and physical therapy for children and adults; and training for parents.
- In 2022, 45 new children were supported through the OneFamily Program which focuses on keeping struggling families together by providing aid through scholarships, psychological therapy, educational workshops, and parental schooling. ▶
- The Chicas Poderosas (“Powerful Girls”) program helps prepare and empower girls by building self-esteem, self-awareness, and confidence.
- The Labor Insertion Program, which was created to give youth necessary skills to acquire a job that will improve their quality of life or achieve a personal life goal so they can live independently. The program provided job training and education and placement assistance to 73 young men and women in 2022.
