ABOUT NPH HONDURAS

A thriving, bustling community less than an hour from the nation's busy capital is Rancho Santa Fe. Open since 1985 Rancho Santa Fe is the second oldest of the NPH homes. Over 200 pequeños make their home in this vast wooded oasis in the hills—a metropolis in comparison to the surrounding quiet pueblos—while older pequeños study and live in the capital, Tegucigalpa.

An NPH USA representative will lead and oversee all travelers throughout the trip. All NPH USA representatives have been screened and are experienced trip leaders.

$805 per person includes*:

- Pre-trip orientation
- On-site accommodations and meals at the NPH home
- NPH interpreter and guide
- Transportation to and from the NPH home/airport
- Transportation costs to witness our work in the surrounding communities of Tegucigalpa, Mata de Plátano, and Talanga, where we run a daycare, a special-needs home, a community center, a soup kitchen, and our high-school housing
- Transportation costs to and lunch in Valle de Angeles, a scenic tourist town in the mountains
- An ice-cream party
- Background check and emergency medical insurance

Price does not include air travel, outside meals, or any unplanned optional excursion costs. Do not book air travel until further instructions are provided by NPH USA regarding flight schedules and local transportation arrangements.*
