Did You Know?

- Rafael Arce, NPH Peru's National Director, is an Hermano Mayor ("Older Brother"), who was raised at NPH Honduras. ▲
- Each of the family-style homes is designed to accommodate 16 children and two caregivers.
- The farm produces organic vegetables, such as onions, carrots, lettuce, cucumber, passion fruit and chili peppers.
- The school year begins in mid-March. The children currently attend local schools. Many had never been to school prior to joining NPH.
- The home's vocational workshop provides the opportunity for youth to learn a valuable trade, as well as provide bread for the home. ▶
- The NPH OneFamily Program prepares children and families for reintegration through a comprehensive, child-centered process in accordance with local laws. Follow-up support focused on the child's well-being also is provided. ▶
- The Family Community Center focuses on educational opportunities, economic empowerment, fostering healthy family relationships, and preventive healthcare.
- In 2023, NPH Peru rented a house called Buen Pastor to facilitate the transition to independent living for young adults entering higher education or vocational training. This initiative provides them with essential life skills and autonomy.
