ABOUT NPH HONDURAS

A thriving, bustling community less than an hour from the nation's busy capital is Rancho Santa Fe. Open since 1985 Rancho Santa Fe is the second oldest of the NPH homes. Around 200 pequeños make their home in this vast wooded oasis in the hills—a metropolis in comparison to the surrounding quiet pueblos—while older pequeños study and live in the capital, Tegucigalpa.

An NPH USA representative will lead and oversee all travelers throughout the trip. All NPH USA representatives have been screened and are experienced trip leaders.

$860 per person includes*:

- Pre-trip orientation, NPH interpreter and guide, Background check and emergency medical insurance
- On-site accommodations and meals at the NPH home
- Transportation to and from the NPH home/airport
- Transportation costs to witness our work in the surrounding communities of Tegucigalpa and Mata de Plátano, where we run a daycare, a special-needs home, a community center, and our high-school housing
- Transportation costs to Valle de Angeles, a scenic tourist town in the mountains
- Pizza Party

**Price does not include air travel, outside meals, or any unplanned optional excursion costs. Do not book air travel until further instructions are provided by NPH USA regarding flight schedules and local transportation arrangements.*
